

Celebrate New Years Everywhere--from Home December 31, 2009

Just found this very neat site that compiles live New Years Eve webcams around the world--EarthCam. Times Square is definitely in there, but so are lots of other cams--from Paris to Prague. So even if you're tucking in for a cozy night, you can partake in some festive lit-up joy. (And then be the envy of everyone tomorrow when you're fresh as a... non hung-over person.
