As we enter the New Year, we will be watching the IMAGINE PEACE TOWER and its warm light together.

Know that our light will be sending the light of love to all planets of the Universe as well.

On this day, I wish to express my love for all of us, including other beings on Earth.

AFFIRMATION FOR 2009 AND BEYOND

Thank you, thank you, thank you

Our planet is healthy and whole

Every part of the planet is revitalized and healed.

We, the people of Earth

See clearly, Hear clearly, Think clearly.

Express and communicate our thoughts clearly

Spiritually, Mentally, and physically.

For the benefit of ours and other planets'

We make the right judgement, right decision, right move

at the right time and the right place for ourselves and others.

We are now bathing in the light of Dawn

Standing in the Heaven we have created on Earth.

We now wish to share this Age of Joy

With all Lives in the Universe.

We are all one, united with infinite and eternal love.

For the highest good of all concerned, So be it.
