

EarthCam Celebrates The Beatles Abbey Road Album Cover with Exclusive Live Views of the Famous Crossing in London

08/08/2012 | Press release distributed by noodls on 08/11/2012 18:34

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New York, August 8, 2012-- Today, August 8th, marks the 43rd anniversary of the iconic Beatles album cover, featuring the Abbey Road crossing in London. EarthCam invites people around the world to join in the celebration of this history making moment in music with exclusive live streaming views of this famous spot.

Located right outside the Abbey Road Studios, The Beatles brought instant fame to the St. John's Wood area when it was featured on their 1969 album cover. This seemingly ordinary street crossing shot to notoriety and is now considered a must-see for tourists visiting the area. EarthCam's HD webcam is there to capture the fun going down at this location, as people recreate the crossing in their own unique way. Sometimes costumes amp up the excitement and even draw a crowd of observers.

The webcam is available 24/7 and the Hall of Fame is regularly updated with the most entertaining and interesting images captured by the camera.

ABOUT EARTHCAM

EarthCam is the global leader in delivering world class webcam content, technology and services. Founded in 1996, EarthCam provides time-lapse megapixel cameras, live streaming video, and complete managed services for corporate and government clients in more than 1,500 international cities. With numerous applications in the construction, transportation, entertainment and tourism industries, EarthCam's revolutionary camera systems deliver superior HD clarity, monitoring, documenting, and archiving of the world's most important projects and events.

The award winning company hosts the world's most popular social media webcam network with over 60,000 Facebook fans. Some highly trafficked tourism cams are these popular locations: Times Square, the Abbey Road Crossing in London and the Las Vegas sign.