

EarthCam Launches Mardi Gras Party on iPhone Live from Bourbon Street February 12, 2010

Pre-Lenten Bourbon Street Action Available on EarthCam Website and in iPhone application in Annual Tradition

New York, NY - EarthCam internet and iPhone visitors will be able to experience Mardi Gras excitement live from the heart of New Orleans, as cameras capture Bourbon Street in all its festive excesses on Shrove Tuesday, February 16th.

EarthCam (www.earthcam.com), the internet's premier global webcam network and leader in webcam technology, will transmit 24/7 live views, including streaming video with audio of the nation's wildest party at both the street level and balconies. The excitement is available on the iPhone and iPod Touch by searching "Mardi Gras" within the Live Cams – EarthCam application (<http://mobile.earthcam.com/iphone/livewebcams/>).

The camera views are located at the corner of Bourbon and St. Peter Streets at the famous "Cat's Meow", where celebrities and karaoke fans from around the world gather to sing and party.

Visitors will see Bourbon Street from early morning supply deliveries and impromptu parades to the good times rolling with the victorious New Orleans Saints fans and a sinner or two. This Mardi Gras promises to be the most exciting in history. EarthCam cameras are currently live with ongoing views of the preparation and the festivities and will continue live transmission beyond the massive morning after clean-up.
