

Street office: soon the first to rent

August 12, 2009

Münster - A spectacular smoke under development is a heating pipe burst and a few days later from the Second World War was defused, saw the room webcam streets of Raphael Hospital in early 2008 real-click records. But even on normal days enjoyed on the roof of the hospital installed camera, which since December 2007 Live photos from the construction site via the Internet around the world sends, great popularity, says Sonja Tress, spokeswoman for the Misericordia GmbH, the parent of the clinic.

"Temporarily companies and logistics companies even have the camera for their work and use time management," recalls Tress. This is now hardly possible to stop the building of large office buildings, streets closed off for several months looking at the property, which for decades was only a parking lot. The temporary election in the Top Ten of the world's leading webcam page Earthcam"- on the cameras, among others from New York and other cities are to be found.

Meanwhile, on the desk the last lane construction started. In mid-September as the first store opened its doors, says Dirk heaven, office manager of the lanes investor Harpen AG. Expected mid-November will be the last tenant Esprit open. In the meantime, take the Esprit edc offshoot, the restaurant Barcelona, the German bank, the fashion manufacturer Tom Tailor, the German Telecom and E-Plus and a pharmacy operation. The car park opens in September, according to the sky, the Ramada Treff Hotel in October. Until November, the square in front of the bar street ready.

In terms of time, cost and logistics, we are using the site very satisfied, "says Himmel. How long Harpen retain the property, is still unclear. "We are in a constant review process," says the CEO. "If a good price can be achieved, we will of course have to consider a sale."

In the hospital while one thinks about what the room after the completion of the lane with a Webcam will happen. At the present site, however, they should only stay if the hotel directly opposite is not disturbed feel assured Sonja Tress.
