Some people head to Tromsø for midnight sun, others party like it's 1999 (BC) at Stonehenge. But New Yorkers are celebrating the 2010 Summer Solstice by taking part in the Mind Over Madness yoga event in the middle of Times Square (at the intersection of Broadway and 7th Avenue between 46th and 47th Streets, to be precise).

To see what's happening at the moment, just click the link below for live video on EarthCam's Times Square webcam. The mass yoga-thon goes on all day until 6pm (11pm British time).
