

EarthCam Announces the 2006 '25 Most Interesting Webcams'

Posted on : Wed, 13 Dec 2006 16:54:00 GMT | Author : EarthCam
News Category : PressRelease

NEW YORK, Dec. 13 /PRNewswire/ -- EarthCam (<http://www.earthcam.com/>), the world's favorite webcam network, recognized authority on the Internet camera industry, and 2006 People's Voice Webby Award winner, has released its eighth annual list of the world's best webcams.

"Our Top 25 continues to showcase the most stunning and entertaining live webcam content from around the world," said Brian Cury, founder and CEO of EarthCam. "Network camera technology and bandwidth improves each year enabling more streaming video content, sharper images, and an enhanced user experience overall."

The 25 Most Interesting Webcams were chosen using the criteria of creativity in concept, technology, visual quality, and design. A diverse group of judges -- from EarthCam executives to VIP's including Iraq war veterans, a Miss Hawaiian Tropic beauty queen, and soap opera star Ricky Paull Goldin from CBS's Guiding Light -- reviewed thousands of nominees to select the best and most distinctive for this annual list.

EarthCam.com is the leading network of live webcams and offers the most comprehensive search engine of webcams from around the world. EarthCam provides complete infrastructure services to manage, host and maintain live streaming video camera systems for its corporate clients. Clients include Panasonic, Ford, NASA, Pfizer, JetBlue, This Old House, Sprint, Toyota, Yahoo!, Disney, Coca-Cola, Discover Card, Turner Construction, Bechtel Corp, Northrop Grumman, Boeing, Lockheed Martin, numerous state and federal government agencies, and the Department of Homeland Security. EarthCam has webcast premier events such as international concerts, Emmy and Grammy Awards, Miss Hawaiian Tropic pageants, Mardi Gras, New Year's Eve in Times Square, and NFL Super Bowls.