A screenshot of the EarthCam website interface for "St. Louis Cam". The interface is divided into several sections. On the left, a red header contains "St. Louis Cam", "St. Louis, Missouri", and "December 1, 2008". Below this is a "Local Weather" section with a yellow background, showing "36°F broken clouds", "Feels Like: 28 F", "Humidity: 86.6%", and "Wind: 10.4 MPH W/NW", updated at 13:55 on 11.30.2008. The main area features a live video feed of the St. Louis skyline, including the Gateway Arch and the Old Courthouse, with a large Christmas tree in the foreground. Above the video are "LIVE", "Archives", and "Hall of Fame" buttons. Below the video, it says "Live 2:48 pm" and "Fountain View". On the right, a red sidebar titled "Fountain View" describes the location: "In the heart of downtown St. Louis, Kiener Plaza and the Morton D. May Amphitheater command a dramatic view of the Old Court House and the Gateway Arch. The park's centerpiece is a pool and fountain with a statue, 'The Runner' by William Zorach." Below this is the "St. Louis Educational & Visitor's Center" logo and the text "Visit our affiliate at St. Louis CVC". At the bottom of the interface are icons for a monitor, envelope, camera, and zoom.
