

Watch Ultra Music Festival's Main Stage Being Built Live

March 22, 2015

Ultra Music Festival is already just one week away. As the excitement continues to build for one of the year's most anticipated events, many people are trying to catch a glimpse of what the main stage will look like this year. Well now you can.

Thanks to a webcam provided by Earth Cam, you can now watch the construction of the main stage thanks to a webcam located on a nearby building.
