Didn't make it to New Orleans this year for the Fat Tuesday, but you wanted to go to Mardi Gras? No worries, NOLA's got you covered. This year, enjoy the festivities from wherever you find yourself this year with EarthCam. Digital jaunters can tune into all the fun with EarthCam streaming live from Bourbon Street and Cat's Meow Karaoke.

It'll be like you're there... sort of. But at least you'll be in on all the action. Download the app or check it out here.
