

WATCH A TIME-LAPSE OF THE ULTRA MIAMI STAGE CONSTRUCTION

29 March 2015

It's all going off in Miami this week, and you can watch how the Ultra Music Festival stage was constructed in just 20 seconds.

The amazing time-lapse video comes courtesy of EarthCam, and shows how the impressive stage goes from the ground up at Miami's Bayfront Park.

You can also see what's going on at various Miami locations including South Beach, Ocean Drive and Downtown thanks to a series of EarthCam webcams across the city.

Watch the Ultra Music Festival stage spring to life below.
