Check Out This Insanely Cool Time-Lapse Video Of The Barclays Center Being Built From The Ground Up

Monday, 1 October 2012 (1 week ago)

Jay-Z just opened the doors to the Barclays Center last Friday, and EarthCam -- a network of webcams -- put together an awesome time-lapse video of the construction of the arena from the ground up.

Keep in mind that construction of the Barclays Center took over two years to complete.
