

Join EarthCam for a LIVE Independence Day Celebration See Dazzling Fireworks Shows from Exciting Locations Across the Country

New York, NY (PRWEB) July 03, 2012

New York (PRWEB) July 03, 2012

Colorful fireworks displays will light up the sky all over the country tomorrow in celebration of America's independence, and EarthCam will be there to deliver live views of these spectacular events for the world to see. Visitors will be able to join the parties in St. Louis, San Francisco, New York and many more popular locations.

An exclusive collection of live webcams have been compiled for everyone's viewing pleasure and can all be found on the EarthCam website. The EarthCam webcam on the mast of the USS Intrepid offers uninterrupted views of the spectacular show taking place on the Hudson River. The party continues in St. Louis, with live views of the crowd in Kiener Plaza and the iconic Gateway Arch. Head over to the west coast with EarthCam's San Francisco Cam and watch as fireworks explode over the famous Golden Gate Bridge.

Other great webcams for catching live views of the celebratory fireworks are the Corpus Christi Cam in Texas and the Fort Lauderdale Cam in Florida. These popular spots and many more can all be found at <http://www.earthcam.com/events/fourthofjuly/2012>.

If you miss any of the action live, EarthCam provides time-lapse webcam archives on their website so viewers can relive our national birthday party whenever they want.
