

VIDEO TIMELAPSE OF THE ESTADUNIDENSE CONSTRUCTION

What do I learn?

November 2, 2016

It is analyzed in the practical guides inmoley.com of the building. Stadium under construction in Minneapolis. Construction of a US stadium has been captured in a full-time video showing 32 months of work in just three minutes. Documenting the progress between January 2014 and September 2016, more than 1 million HD footage shows the construction of the United States Stadium in Minnesota, home to the Minnesota Vikings football team. Stadium construction images, created by EarthCam webcam technology company, allowed more than 16 million people to track the project while building the site.

Spanish translated using Google Translate.